CO. SIGNS AND TANGENTS.

There is a great deal of intellectual pabulum in signboards. To him who, in the love of business and mental growth, holds communion with these visible forms, the signboard speaks a varied and fearfully punctuated language. The average sign painter is born with the belief that when he paints "John Smith, Dry Goods and Groceries," on the front door of Mr. Smith's store, he must paint it in this guise: "John. Smith. Dry. Goods. and. Groceries," Sometimes, however, he doesn't even put the comma after groceries, but permits it to remain an all-comprehensive word evermore looking into the limitless eternity, of measureless suggestiveness of unfathomable groceries. If the artist be a German bred painter he is prone to make his sign startling and thrilling in its very commonplaces—"John! Smith! Dry! Goods! and! Boots! and! Shoes" fading away into the same dreamy, vague, dim and misty, unpunctuated outlook so much affected by his American colleague. If there isn't much room on the signboard the artist reserves most of it for his own name; he paints in nonpareil for his patron and long primer for himself: "JOHN! JONES. Hardware BENJAMIN G. NORTH. Ptr,"

If the merchant, being an economical man, has painted his own sign, he spaces badly and divides on any letter that comes handy, and startles the world with

WILLIAM W. WILLIA-
MSON, Well digger and cisterns

One sign almost invariably "throws" even the regularly-ordained sign writer and his "mens' and boy's boots' and shoe's" is marvelously original in a dozen styles. Suppose you try yourself and see what the proof-reader will do with your effort. But what I was going to say when I began this very extensive portico to a very small house was that recently I perused two signs that impressed me deeply. One is in St. John, New Brunswick, the gold-lettered sign of the firm "Wisdom and Fish." Hasn't it always been said that Fish is brain food? Only in this sign Wisdom comes first. Should it not be Fish and Wisdom? The other I read last week in Chester, Pennsylvania. It is over a wagon shop I think—"Cain and Brother." Now, why couldn't they just as well write it "Cain and Abel?" It might not be correct, but it would be so Scriptural.—Bob Burdette, in Brooklyn Eagle.

HOOSIER NEWS.

The Gossop at Indianapolis and the Proceedings of the Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Eeb. 10.—The house committee on benevolent institutions was instructed, on motion of Representative Ibach, to report back all bills concerning the schools for the feeble-minded, so that they can become the special order for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This calls up the question of locating the last named institute at Fort Wayne.

The concurrent resolution passed by both houses yesterday, accepting on behalf of the people of Indiana the invitation of the Ohio general assembly to take part in the Marietta and Columbus centennial celebrations next year, commemorative of the American settlement of the Northwest territory, extends hearty encouragement and support to both enterprises. The governor is authorized to appoint an honorary commissioner to represent the state at both celebrations.

The pharmacy bill of Senator Bryant, passed by the senate, requires the drug business to be in charge of those who have successfully undergone the examinations of a state pharmaceutical board, the five members of which are to be appointed by the governor, to serve three years. Proprietors of stores not practical pharmacists must employ clerks who are. The sale of poisons is also prohibited, except under certain restrictions.

Senator McDonald's bill regarding the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan home passed by the house yesterday, and now needing only the approval of the governor differs immaterially from the present law. It provides for the rebuilding of the home at Knightstown, and the purchase of seventy-two additional acres, which will give altogether 129 acres for the use of the institution.

Senator Johnson's bill, providing that in cases of capital punishment, the victim shall be hanged in a state prison before sunrise and in strict privacy, has been engrossed by the senate. The Ohio law on this subject is about the same.

The committee appointed by the republican joint committee to prepare a memorial to the United States senate, regarding the alleged illegality of Judge Turp e's election have begun their work and are preparing the testimony in support of their allegatien, that the votes of Senators Smith, of Jennings; McDonald, of Allen and Whitley, and Branaman, of Jackson and Lawrence, were illegal.

Mr. Kellison's bill, fixing the legal rate of interest in the state at 6 per cent. was defeated in the house yesterday—ayes 41, nays 54.

Mr. Seller's bill, passed by the senate yesterday, provides for paying teachers for their attendance on county institutes.

The senate yesterday refused to reconsider Senator Barrett's bill requiring corporations to pay laborers every two weeks.

THE FLOOD.

Grand River is Still Rising and Threatens Towns on Its Banks.

LYONS, Mich., Feb. 10.—Lyons is a sea of ice. Grand river rose during the night about four feet and an ice gorge formed just below the city. The whole business part of town is under water and great damage sustained. The gorge covers an area of about 400 acres and it is estimated to be twenty feet thick in places. Tho water is several feet deep in the second floor of the woolen mills and Cornell works. Should the Lansing ice reach here before the gorge breaks it will probably leave the river bed and carry many of the houses down the river.

Owosso, Mich., Feb. 10—The ice in the Shiawasse river is jammed below the Main street bridge and the water, already high, is rising gradually. All the factories along the river have been obliged to close.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Following are the weather indications:

Indiana, local rains, followed by fair weather, lower temperature.

POSTAL THIEVES.

They Are Cornered and One of Them Leaps into a River and Drowns Himself.

BOUND BROOK, N. J., Feb. 10.—Daring thieves entered the postoffice last night, but were discovered by a railroad agent who opened fire upon them. One thief was shot, but he managed to get to the Raratin river, where he jumped in and was drowned. The other one was overpowered and taken into custody. He is sullen, refusing to tell who he is or give the name of the dead thief.

A COLLISION.

The British Steamer Wells City Run Down.

NEW YORK. Feb. 10.—The British steamer, Wells City, was run down in the Hudson river this morning by the steamer Lone Star, of the Morgan line. The Wells City has just arrived from Bristol and was at anchor off her pier, when the Lone Star, coming up the river, ran into her and stove a hole in her hull. She filled rapidly and sank. The Lone Star was much damaged and was run into the landing at pier 37 and laid up there. The officers and crew of the sinking steamer were rescued and taken ashore.

A later investigation reveals that it was not another steamer, but floating river ice, which stove in the side of the Wells City.

WASHINGTON.

The senate has passsed the bill prohibiting shore mackerel fishing during the spawning season by a vote to thirty-four to eleven.

The president has approved the army appropriation bill and the immediate transportation bill.

The Abraham Lincoln Hearse Burned.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 10.—In the destruction of Jesse Arnot's livery stable last night, the hearse in which the remains of the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln, were conveyed to their last resting place was consumed. The hearse was built for that especial purpose, and since that day has never been out of the building.

Prematurely Exploded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The bomb which exploded prematurely in the hands of a crank at the Grand Opera house last night, was made of a can, in the center of which was a candle. The can was wrapped in pieces of cloth soaked in inflammable oil, and it is believed the intention was not only to kill Patti and those near the stage, but also to set fire to the building. It was arranged to explode by a number of friction matches, which connected with a fuse inserted in the powder. The theory is that the fire burned too quickly for the crank.

A Big Wedding.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 10.—The marriage of Miss Lillian Miles, daughter of Mr. R. E. J. Miles, manager of the Grand opera house, to Mr. D. G. Edwards, general passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ghio railway, is announced to take place Tuesday next.

MIGHT BE ADOPTED WITH PROFIT.

The fashion our grandmothers had of carrying a knitted silk purse has been revived by the New York belles. There are some other fashions our grandmothers had that young women of the present day might revive with advantage. Otherwise it may not be possible for future generations to revive the fashions of their grandmothers. Somerville Journal.

WATER WORKS.

The Annual Report Makes a Splendid Showing in Every Department of the Service—Facts Worth Knowing.

Mr. P. J. McDonald, the very efficient clerk of the board of water works trustees, has just formulated the annual report of the department and the names of Charles McCulloch, T. B. Hedekin and C. F. Wm. Meyer are attached to it.

The statement shows that in the last eight months 3,400 feet of street mains have been laid, making 29.48 miles of pipe in the service. There are 229 public fire hydrants, ten private hydrants, 104 water meters and eleven elevator registers in use. All these go to supply and equip 1,460 service connections or consumers of water.

This statement of the finances of the department is comprehensive and will interest everybody:

Revenue for eight months ending January 1, 1887, $13,697.65.

Total cost of ordinary maintenance for same period, $5,753,55.

The trustees have received from all sources since the inauguration of the works up to date: Construction fund from the city, $280,238.69; total cash receipts, $107,332.75, making a grand total of $387,571.44.

The department has expended for construction, $262,930.54; for extensions, $22,470.94; for maintenance, $53,534.62; for all other purposes, $31,977.40; making the total expenditures $370,913.50, and adding the rebates, deposits, refunders, etc., of $579.04, the expenditures stand $371,492.54.

The cash balance on hand Jan. 1, 1887, was [$16,079.90; received during month of Jan. 1887, 7,123.63, making a total cash on hand Feb. 1, 1887, of $23,-202.53.

During the past eight months 101 service taps have been made at an average cost of $9.15 each. The work was done by employes of the water works instead of letting it to the contractors, as had been done prior to a resolution passed by the city council June 17, 1884. At that time the average cost of each tap made was $11.15, so it will be seen that $2 has been saved each time, which, in the agregate amounts to a considerable sum, thus proving the expediency of the action of the council. Since the passage of the resolution heretofore referred to, the total number of taps made was 252, showing a net saving of $504, not to mention that the streets are left in better shape.

A BIG ONE.

The Grand Rapids Road to Build a Magnificent Summer Hotel.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke has seen the plans for the new hotel to be built at Mackinaw Island the coming summer by the Grand Rapids and Indiana and Michigan Central railroads and the Detroit and Cleveland navigation company. The building will be 680 feet long, forty-six feet wide and four stories high.

A verandah twenty feet wide will extend the full length of the front, and the main roof of the structure will extend over and form the roof of the verandah, the posts of which will be thirty-five feet high. Every alternate room in the second and third stories will be provided with a balcony overlooking the verandah below. The basement will be occupied by the billiard room, bath room, servants' rooms and fifty sleeping rooms. A hall eight feet wide will extend the whole length on all floors except where interrupted by the dining room and office.

The hotel will be heated by steam, equipped with elevators, electric lights and bells and have all modern conveniences. It is to be completed ready for opening July 1, will cost from $150,000 to $200,000, and will contain 1,500,000 feet of lumber. It is estimated that it will require 300 men 90 days to erect the hotel. Every apartment will be an outside room and 600 guests can be accommodated without crowding.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., Feb. 10.—Deputy Sheriff Coton, assisted by Mr. Cobb, of Seebree, while attempting to levy upon the property of Mr. McElroy, in Webster county, for unpaid taxes, was attacked by McElroy with an axe. Cobb received probably a fatal wound, when Coton shot and killed McElroy.

Father McGlynn's Condition.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Dr. Shrady, the physician of Fr. McGlynn, said to-day that the latter gentleman was in a condition of gradual improvement. It is intended to send Dr. McGlynn away from the city for a change, so that his recovery may be more rapid. He will not, however, start for a few days, and his destination will probably be some farm house in the vicinity of Fortress Monroe.

CONSTRUCTION OF CHIMNEYS.

A London journal devoted to architecture states that the best chimneys are made by inclosing hard-baked pipes in a thin wall of bricks. Such chimneys will not only draw better than those made in the usual way, but there will be less danger from "defective flues." A four-inch wall of brick between us and destruction by fire is a frail barrier, especially if the work is carelessly done, or the mortar has crumbled from the joints. To build the chimneys with double, or eight-inch walls makes them very large, more expensive, and still not as good as when they contain the smooth, round flues. To leave an air chamber between them for ventilating is better than to open directly into the smoke flue, because it will not impair the draught for the fire, and there will be no danger of a sooty odor in the room when the circulation happens to be downward, as it will be occasionally. The outside chimney, if there is one, should have an extra air chimney between the very outer walls and the back of the fireplace to save heat, a precaution that removes, to a great extent, the common objection to such chimneys. A very large per cent. of fires comes from defective chimneys.

SAM JONES.

What He is Saying in Boston, Massachusetts.

I despise these little two-wheeled Christians.

I'd rather be a noble, generous sinner than a stingy Methodist.

I do not know any human being who has any special claim on God.

God never made two men alike, and, if he did, one of them was no account.

Jesus would put the angels on half rations before he would let a soldier in his army suffer.

This world has been keeping its eyes open for 6,000 years, and yet they have never seen a good man want.

I left my feelings at home, for I thought some fool in Boston might hurt them if I brought them along.

The power of the pulpit is in the pew. It is rough to put a preacher in an ice-box and then curse him because he will not sweat.

They have been after me about my grammar long enough to straighten me out but I always try to adapt my style to my congregation.

David was a great sinner but David was a magnificent repenter. He beat any man of his day sinning but he also beat them all repenting.

There may be a lot of people who can beat me in living right but there shall not be any man who can beat me of repenting of anything I do wrong.

There may appear in my remarks what seems to be levity but I would rather have anything than that sober, solid, hump-backed stiffness some try to palm off as religion.

God is going through this world hunting for every hungry man and when the hungry world hears God ringing his dinner bell the hungry men can take off their hats, walk in and eat and be hungry no more.

When a representative of a Methodist church died on a ball room floor—a young lady—the devil came in, picked her up bodily and ran off with her, I will say this to you, you dancer that goes to ball rooms: If you die, you die on the devil's territory.

A boy gets $10,000 in the Lousiana State lottery, but I would rather be a boy who had ploughed a whole week for $1. I would slap that dollar into my pocket, push my breeches under my head at night and the eagle on the dollar would turn into a nightingale and sing me to sleep.

Many preachers say that a man is not religious because he has no morals. Nonsense! One man gets religion and he jumps up and shouts the praises of God. Another man gives $1,000 to a mission next Sunday, but never shouts. Now, which which would you bet on, if you were a betting man?

LOUIS, Feb. 10.—A special to the Post Dispatch from Pine Hill, Ark., says that the sheriff's posse started Monday night in pursuit of a party of incendiaries and found three some distance from town. The resisted arrest and the police opened fire on them, mortally wounding two. The other one escaped.

"ANNIE, is it proper to say this 'ere, that 'ere?" "Why Kate, of course not." "Will, I don't know whether it is proper or not, but I feel cold in this ear from that air."

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

THURSDAY, FEB. 10, 1887.

THE two policemen at Norwalk, Conn., disputed as to who should be chief, and after a wrangle lasting two weeks they arrested and clubbed each other, and the town gave both the bounce and concluded that it was safer not to have any police force. There are times when ambition overleaps itself and gets a cold shake as a consequence.

THE reviewer of the London Times thinks that American fiction in its latest phase shows an excess in the power of painting realistic detail over the power of grasping what Gothe called "Motives;" that some of the now senior novelists are very skillful in motiviren, but that they work in the slightest and flimsiest material, and mostly on subjects drawn from town life. He thinks also that the younger school, represented partly by Miss Murfree, have a great command of new and fresh detail, especially in connection with rural and outlandish life, but are decidedly weak in that inner logical structure on which all great work in fiction depends.

EX-VICE PRESIDENT WHEELER is reported by a late visitor to his home at Malone as busy with his correspondence. He was cheerful, cordial, and vigorous in conversation. His health is seriously impaired, but not so as to prostrate him or confine him to his house. That he is kept in seclusion by his relatives or that he is constantly under the influence of opium is entirely false and groundless. Mr. Wheeler has survived his parents, brothers, sisters, and wife, and now lives alone, childless, and without a near relative in the world, and these bereavements have, of course, saddened him, but they have not broken him.

MR. GARLAND made his first appearance in public in company with the other members of the administration at the Logan funeral. Mr. Garland has steadfastly refused every invitation to any kind of gathering, official or social. He has never accompanied the President and his Cabinet when they have gone to neighboring cities to attend public gatherings. His reserve and fondness for shutting himself up, either in the Department of Justice or at home, appears to have grown upon him during the last year. He very rarely sees any one at his house in the evening. Very few public men call upon him.

"I HEAR," says a London letter writer, "that the advertisements in the Christmas number of Truth amounted to no less a sum than £1,100. It is the good fortune of Mr. Labouchere to turn everything he touches into gold. Truth paid from the second number, and it now brings him in the princely income of £12,000. He was for ten years a theatrical manager, and yet lost no money. The other day Henry Irving was recalling those days when he was one of Mr. Labouchere's stock company at the Queen's Theater, in Long Acre, and, with half a sigh, related the fact that he was only receiving £7 a week. 'Three pounds, my friend,' interposed the heartless Labby."

CONGRESSMAN THOMAS, of Illinois, whose illness, it is feared, may lead to his retirement from politics, is one of the best story-tellers in public life. Some time since Mr. Thomas formed one of a party of gentlemen on a sporting expedition to Maryland. While entertaining them in his cheery manner en route, it was noticed that a stranger present seemed to relish heartily the bon mots and anecdotes which fell in such profusion from the Illinois Congressman's lips. As they were about to leave the steamer, the stranger volunteered this bit of information regarding himself: "I am a Catholic priest, but I enjoy occasionally laying aside my clerical robes to travel about and read the world as it is. I have been most delightfully entertained on this occasion, and, sir," turning toward the Congressman and presenting his card, "you are the very best story-teller I ever heard."

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and Impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

AT Washington during the present session, writes a correspondent, Representative Burns, of Missouri, William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, Wilkins, of Ohio, Tom Bayne, of Pittsburgh, and a few others have formed a coterie, and are often seen playing three-ball billiards or pool at one of the prominent rooms Mr. Burns is probably the most expert of the quartet. He learned at home, and knows how to handle the balls. Like Tom Ochiltree, he nurses them when at billiards, and tosses them around deftly when the game is pool, He talks much more than does Mr. Phelps while playing, for the well-known New Jerseyman seems a little bored when he is making an exhibition of himself in a pool room. Col. Bayne is known as a good all-around-the-table billiardist, and he enjoys the surroundings during a contest, and likes the excitement when the game is evenly matched, whereas Mr. Phelps seems to wander off in his mind to legislation or the prospects for the Plumed Knight in 1888. Beriah Wilkins is the latest addition to the billiard players, but he is no novice in the art. He chalks his cue and rattles his contestants with the guys as familiarly as any professional. He is very talkative, and the boys say he seems to think he can play as well with his tongue as with his cue. J. Hart Brewer, of New Jersey, the well-known potter, who took such a prominent part in the tariff discussion in the Forty-seventh Congress, was an habitue of the billiard parlors here, and used to round up Wilkins frequently. Robertson, of Kentucky, often sticks his head into the billiard rooms, but he never cared as much for dallying with the cue and balls as Senator Beck, who, but for the work he has to do and the lack of dignity about it, would be about the billiard rooms much of his time. Few of the Southern Senators or Representatives are ever seen in billiard rooms. They come here from the East and Central States mostly. And, strange as it may seem, the public men who play billiards most drink the least. There are those who would turn up their noses at the suggestion of playing billiards, but would drink to excess and never think it wrong. There is the greatest abandon among the sixty or seventy-five legislators who frequently play billiards. Sometimes, on a hot night, they take off their coats and work like wood sawyers. Senator Vest, it is said, can make more work around a billiard table than a section hand on a railroad car at his work. Senator Ransom moves around and rests while he plays. Senator Voorhees never plays, because, they say, he has not the patience, if he had the time. Senator Palmer likes billiards, but he likes them at the quiet home, away from the noise and confusion of the crowd.

Pond's Extract.

As a household remedy there are few family medicines that are as popular as Pond's Extract. It can be found in the houses of almost every family, north, south, east or west, in this country and is largely used abroad. First made over forty years ago in a small way, it has continued to increase till now its sales run into millions of bottles a year. Its uses are almost universal and one of its valuable properties is that it is perfectly harmless. In cases of wounds, its healing powers are wonderful, its astringent properties stopping the flow of blood; for bad wounds its just the thing to apply until the doctor arrives. For inflammations, the pain and swelling go down immediately on its application. To name what it would do would fill a book. Reader, we ask you, if you have not already done so, to try it." Be sure to get the genuine.—St. Louis (Mo.) Republican.

The parents of a Hoosier young lady opposed her marriage with Albert Wright, a Greencastle photographer, and Wright killed himself with a revolver.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

New York has found a woman who has thrived and grown fat on less than a half a loaf of bread in three weeks, for sixty years. Her children never saw her eat.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The venerable Cassius M. Clay has announced himself as a republican farmer candidate for governor of Kentucky.

From 115 lbs. to 161 lbs.

To the Cuticura Remidies I Owe My Health, My Happiness, and My Life.

A day never passes that I do not think and speak kindly of the Cuticura Remedies. Seven years ago, all of a dozen lumps formed on my neck, ranging in size from a cherry stone to an orange. The large ones were frightful to look at, and painful to bear; people turned aside when they saw me, in disgust, and I was ashamed to be on the street or in society. Physicians and their treatment, and all medicines failed to do any good. In a moment of despair I tried the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura, the great skin cure, and Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, externally, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, internally; the small lumps (as I call them) gradually disappeared, and the large ones broke, in about two weeks, discharging large quantities of matter, leaving two slight scars in my neck to-day to tell the story of my suffering. My weight then was one hundred and fifteen sickly pounds; my weight now is one hundred and sixty-one solid, healthy pounds, and my height is only five feet five inches. In my travels I praised the Cuticura Remedies, North, South, East and West. To Cuticura Remedies I owe my health, my happiness, and my life. A prominent New York druggist ask me the other day, "Do you still use the Cuticura Remedies; you look to be in perfect health?" My reply was, "I do, and shall always. I have never known what sickness is since I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies." Sometimes I am laughed at by praising them to people not acquainted with their merits, but sooner or later they will come to their senses and believe the same as those that use them, as dozens have whom I have sold. May the time come when there shall be a large Cuticura supply house in every city in the world, for the benefit of humanity, where the Cuticura Remedies shall be sold only, so there will be rarely a need of ever entering a drug store. Sneezing Catarrh

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, coughs, ringing noises in the head and splitting headaches—how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influenza, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple catarrh gives but a faint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous cummulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated and hacking cough gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvellous curative power of Sanford's Radical Cure manifests itself in instantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent, economical, safe.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and an improved inhaler; price, $1.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Reports of the Police Commissioners, City Attorney, City Clerk and City Treasurer.

REPORT OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council.

We, your board of police commissioners, respectfully report that since last meeting we have examined charges against three patrolmen. In the first case, that of Patrolman Quinn, we found the charge true, but we considered that he has served the city many years and faithfully, and he having been suspended for five days before his hearing, we continued him in service after reprimanding him and warning him against a repetition of such charge. In the case of Officer Fuschuber, we found that he simply entered a saloon, drank nothing at all, and he claimed that he entered the place in search of a person, which, if true, was allowable under the rules. In the case of Officer O'Connell we ordered those said to have been witnesses to attend the examination, a gentleman on the street car service was the only one to attend and he was unwilling to swear that Officer O'Connell was intoxicated. Under the evidence we could not find him guilty.

On motion of Mr. Doehrman the above report was concurred in.

REPORT OF CITY ATTORNEY.

To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council. Gentlemen—

I respectfully report as follows:

That I find the sum of $53 properly due W. D. Maier as clerk's costs in divers cases correct.

HENRY COLERICK, City Attorney.

On motion of Mr. Doehrman the report was concurred in, and clerk instructed to issue an ordinance with the report.

REPORT OF STREET COMMISSIONER AND CITY CIVIL ENGINEER.

To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council.

We, the street commissioners and city civil engineer, report that we have examined the outlet of the Hanna street sewer and the outlet of the Walton Avenue sewer and we find that the outlets of said sewers are in a bad and dangerous condition, especially the Hanna street sewer, as there is about ten feet of said sewer washed out, including the bulk head. The cause of the damage is: When the ice in the river commenced moving it carried the chute of the Hanna street sewer away. We therefore recommend that the matter be referred to the proper committee with power to act.

J. S. GOSHORN,
City Civil Engineer.

DENNIS O'BRIEN,
Street Commissioner.

On motion of Mr. Buttenbender the adove report was referred to the street commissioner, city civil engineer and sewer committee with power to make all the temporary repairs necessary.

A CHOICE OF TERMS.

A little girl who had been invited to a wedding was besieging her mother to let her go.

"I want to see some one married awfully," she announced as a climax.

"You should not use such emphatic language," remonstrated her mother.

"Well, then, mamma, I want to see some one awfully married," amended Miss Malapert.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine tan at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite and giving a healthy to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

Operatic music has been prohibited in the Philadelphia Catholic churches.

Why do you suffer with backache, pain in the chest, rheumatism, or lameness anywhere when a Hop Plaster will surely give you relief. Druggists sell them, 25 cents.

How to Gain Flesh and Strength

Use after each meal Scott's Emulsion; It is as palatable as milk and easily digested. Delicate people improve raddily with its use. For consumption, throat affections and bronchitis it is unequalled. Dr. Thomas Prim, Ala., says: I used Scott's Emulsion on a child eight months old; he gained four pounds in a month.'

William Davisson, aged 16, shot and seriously wounded Lizzie Cragham, aged 15, at St. Louis, because of jealousy.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only real cure.

The English government has practically decided to adopt the Lee-Remington American rifle for the use of the army.

Quite a change has taken place in a great many goods the last sixty days, the tendency being in most cases upwards. This is the case, especially in Coffee and Dried Fruits, Sugars, Teas, Syrups, Spices and Tobaccos, have not advanced, but from indications they will.

It will pay our customers to purchase liberally.

We have just received forty hogsheads of choice New Orleans Sugar.

People have no longer to send off to purchase their Teas. In order to save money we keep up the plan of buying in large lots of the importers and re-selling direct to our customers at a small profit, thereby saving to our customers the intermediate profits of jobber and wholesale dealer—which is not less than 10 to 20c.

Next month A. J. Smith will become general passenger and ticket agent of the Lake Shore road, with E. C. Luce as assistant. Their headquarters will be in Cleveland. It is understood that W. P. Johnston will remain in Chicago as general western passenger agent.

ALMOST A FATAL MISTAKE.

In an Arkansaw town, a mob, led by a desperate man, marched to a jail, dragged a murderer from a cell and hurried with him to the outskirts of town. Each man wore an expression of determination—features hardened by awful resolve. The prisoner attempted to speak, to beg for his life, but burly hands closed around his throat and the prayer he would have uttered went out in an inarticulate gurgle.

When the infuriated men reached a large oak, they halted. One of them threw a rope over a limb.

"Gentlemen," said the prisoner, "please give me a chance to say a word."

"Be quick about it," some one shouted.

"Gentlemen, I admit that the evidence is against me, but as truly as we stand here, I killed that man in self-defense."

"Killed what man?" was asked.

"Bill Bottleford."

"Say, you ain't the man that killed Bottleford, are you?"

"Yes, unfortunately, I am the man."

"Men," shouted the leader, "we have come in one of making a terrible mistake." Then turning to the prisoner the leader added: "We thought, sir, that you were the man that stole Nat Boyd's fish trap. Hop down offen the box. You are free."—Arkansaw Traveler.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

The Wedding of Mr. Lehman to Miss Heilbronner Quite a Society Event.

Last evening Mr. I. Lehman, a prosperous merchant at Harper, Kansas, was wedded to Miss Hattie, the accomplished daughter of Mr. S. Heilbronner. Dr. Israel Aaron solemnized the ceremony at the synagogue, and afterward a fashionable reception occurred at the Standard club parlors, where also a superb wedding feast was spread. The synagogue was tastily festooned with flowers and Mr. and Mrs. Lehman were the recipients of costly gifts. They are now making a tour of the east, finally to settle at Harper, Kansas. It is almost out of our province to go into details as to the elegance of the affair or to attempt a description of the costumes of the ladies, but an idea of the sumptuous closing feast served by Mr. J. J. Neiderberger, the caterer, can be gleaned from the following bill of fare:

GLIDING ON GLASS IN GLORY.

"Oh, George!" said Sylvia to her future lord and master as he lapped the powder off her cheek. "I do love you, but I cannot go to the rink with you any more."

"And why not, pray?" said George.

"The minister says it is wrong," replied Sylvia, sobbing.

"Since when have you become so attentive to the minister's counsel? It was only yesterday you called him a meddling old fogy."

"But I want to go to heaven, George."

"So do we all, I hope."

"But, George, dear, I cannot go to heaven if I go to the rink."

"But why this sudden longing for heaven?"

"Oh, George," said Sylvia, "you ought to have heard Mr. Tane read the lesson yesterday. There is to be a sea of glass there."

"Well, what of that?"

"And we are never to grow tired nor sleepy."

"Well?"

"And it will last forever."

"Yes?"

"Oh, George, think of the daisy skating there will be!"—St. Paul Herald.

MORALITIES.

When a man has no desire but to speak the plain truth he may say a great deal in a very narrow space.

One dies twice—to cease to live is nothing, but to cease to love and be loved is an insupportable death.

Every man is the maker of his own fortune, and must be, is some measure, the trumpet of his own fame.

The more our gifts and graces are exercised, the more they are strengthened and increased. All acts strengthen habits.

When home is ruled according to God's word, angels might be asked to stay at night with us, and they would not find themselves out of their element.

Fame is an undertaker that pays but little attention to the living, but bedizens the dead, furnishes out the funerals, and follows them to the grave.

How easy it is for one benevolent being to diffuse pleasure around him; and how truly is a kind heart a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity to freshen into smiles.—White Hall Times.

HE SPANKED THE BOY.

All the adult passengers in the waiting room had their attention attracted by his antics. He wanted candy, and he wanted to see the river, and he wanted more than any city the size of Detroit could possibly furnish free gratis. His mother hushed him up the best she could, and several times he slapped her face and kicked her shins and got off without even a pinch. By and by an old man who sat near her, and whose feet the boy had walked on several times, began to get nervous, and, turning to his right-hand neighbor, said:

"Land o' massy! but I've either got to git outer here or spank that boy!"

"He just aches for it!" growled the other.

"He does. He puts me in mind of my William. I've seen William when nothing on arth but a spanking would put good nature into him."

"I say I will go!" shouted the boy at this moment.

"Please, Johnny, be good," entreated the mother.

"I won't!"

"Oh, do. See how they are all looking at us."

"I don't care if they are!"

With that he walked up to the old man, and made a kick, and then the curtain went up on the play. With one twist and two motions he was seized, whirled over a pair of knees, and, before he could squawk once, the spanking machine began its work. If ever a boy of seven was neatly wound up, and the ugly taken out of him in sixty seconds, the work was no more complete than in this case.

"There," said the spanker, as he upended the child and planted him on a seat, "you'll feel better—a heap better. Hated to do it, you know, but saw that you was suffering for it. Beg your mother's pardon for interfering in fam'ly matters, but you set right thar till the train is ready."

The boy "set," and such a calm and solid peace stole over the crowd that the yells of the hackman outdoors gave everbody a pain.—Detroit Free Press.

CO. SIGNS AND TANGENTS.

There is a great deal of intellectual pabulum in signboards. To him who, in the love of business and mental growth, holds communion with these visible forms, the signboard speaks a varied and fearfully punctuated language. The average sign painter is born with the belief that when he paints "John Smith, Dry Goods and Groceries," on the front door of Mr. Smith's store, he must paint it in this guise: "John. Smith. Dry. Goods. and. Groceries." Sometimes, however, he doesn't even put the comma after groceries, but permits it to remain an all-comprehensive word evermore looking into the limitless eternity, of measureless suggestiveness of unfathomable groceries. If the artist be a German bred painter he is prone to make his sign startling and thrilling in its very commonplaces—"John! Smith! Dry! Goods! and! Boots! and! Shoes" fading away into the same dreamy, vague, dim and misty, unpunctuated outlook so much affected by his American colleague. If there isn't much room on the signboard the artist reserves most of it for his own name; he paints in nonpareil for his patron and long primer for himself: "JOHN! JONES. Hardware BENJAMIN G. NORTH. Ptr."

If the merchant, being an economical man, has painted his own sign, he spaces badly and divides on any letter that comes handy, and startles the world with

WILLIAM W. WILLIAMSONS. Well digger and cistern

One sign almost invariably "throws" even the regularly-ordained sign writer and his "mens' and boy's boots' and shoe's" is marvelously original in a dozen styles. Suppose you try yourself and see what the proof-reader will do with your effort. But what I was going to say when I began this very extensive portico to a very small house was that recently I perused two signs that impressed me deeply. One is in St. John, New Brunswick, the gold-lettered sign of the firm "Wisdom and Fish." Hasn't it always been said that Fish is brain food? Only in this sign Wisdom comes first. Should it not be Fish and Wisdom? The other I read last week in Chester, Pennsylvania. It is over a wagon shop I think—"Cain and Brother." Now, why couldn't they just as well write it "Cain and Abel?" It might not be correct, but it would be so Scriptural.—Bob Burdette, in Brooklyn Eagle.

HOOSIER NEWS.

The Gossip at Indianapolis and the Proceedings of the Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 10.—The house committee on benevolent institutions was instructed, on motion of Representative Ibach, to report back all bills concerning the schools for the feeble-minded, so that they can become the special order for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This calls up the question of locating the last named institute at Fort Wayne.

The concurrent resolution passed by both houses yesterday, accepting on behalf of the people of Indiana the invitation of the Ohio general assembly to take part in the Marietta and Columbus centennial celebrations next year, commemorative of the American settlement of the Northwest territory, extends hearty encouragement and support to both enterprises. The governor is authorized to appoint an honorary commissioner to represent the state at both celebrations.

The pharmacy bill of Senator Bryant, passed by the senate, requires the drug business to be in charge of those who have successfully undergone the examinations of a state pharmaceutical board, the five members of which are to be appointed by the governor, to serve three years. Proprietors of stores not practical pharmacists must employ clerks who are. The sale of poisons is also prohibited, except under certain restrictions.

Senator McDonald's bill regarding the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan home passed by the house yesterday, and now needing only the approval of the governor differs immaterially from the present law. It provides for the rebuilding of the home at Knightstown, and the purchase of seventy-two additional acres, which will give altogether 129 acres for the use of the institution.

Senator Johnson's bill, providing that in cases of capital punishment, the victim shall be hanged in a state prison before sunrise and in strict privacy, has been engrossed by the senate. The Ohio law on this subject is about the same.

The committee appointed by the republican joint committee to prepare a memorial to the United States senate, regarding the alleged illegality of Judge Turpie's election have begun their work and are preparing the testimony in support of their allegation, that the votes of Senators Smith, of Jennings; McDonald, of Allen and Whitley, and Branaman, of Jackson and Lawrence, were illegal.

Mr. Kellison's bill, fixing the legal rate of interest in the state at 6 per cent. was defeated in the house yesterday—ayes 41, nays 54.

Mr. Beller's bill, passed by the senate yesterday, provides for paying teachers for their attendance on county institutes.

The senate yesterday refused to reconsider Senator Barrett's bill requiring corporations to pay laborers every two weeks.

THE FLOOD.

Grand River Is Still Rising and Threatens Towns on Its Banks.

LYONS, Mich., Feb. 10.—Lyons is a sea of ice. Grand river rose during the night about four feet and an ice gorge formed just below the city. The whole business part of town is under water and great damage sustained. The gorge covers an area of about 400 acres and it is estimated to be twenty feet thick in places. The water is several feet deep in the second floor of the woolen mills and Cornell works. Should the Lansing ice reach here before the gorge breaks it will probably leave the river bed and carry many of the houses down the river.

OWOSSO, Mich., Feb. 10.—The ice in the Shiawassee river is jammed below the Main street bridge and the water, already high, is rising gradually. All the factories along the river have been obliged to close.

They Are Cornered and One of Them Leaps Into a River and Drowns Himself.

BOUND BROOK, N. J., Feb. 10.—Daring thieves entered the postoffice last night, but were discovered by a railroad agent who opened fire upon them. One thief was shot, but he managed to get to the Raritan river, where he jumped in and was drowned. The other one was overpowered and taken into custody. He is sullen, refusing to tell who he is or give the name of the dead thief.

A COLLISION.

The British Steamer Wells City Run Down.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The British steamer, Wells City, was run down in the Hudson river this morning by the steamer Lone Star, of the Morgan line. The Wells City has just arrived from Bristol and was at anchor off her pier, when the Lone Star, coming up the river, ran into her and stove a hole in her hull. She filled rapidly and sank. The Lone Star was much damaged and was run into the landing at pier 37 and laid up there. The officers and crew of the sinking steamer were rescued and taken ashore.

A later investigation reveals that it was not another steamer, but floating river ice, which stove in the side of the Wells City.

ST. The hearse was built for that especial purpose, and since that day has never been out of the building.

Prematurely Exploded.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The bomb which exploded prematurely in the hands of a crank at the Grand Opera house last night, was made of a can, in the center of which was a candle. The can was wrapped in pieces of cloth soaked in inflammable oil, and it is believed the intention was not only to kill Patti and those near the stage, but also to set fire to the building. It was arranged to explode by a number of friction matches, which connected with a fuse inserted in the powder. The theory is that the fire burned too quickly for the crank.

WATER WORKS.

The Annual Report Makes a Splendid Showing in Every Department of the Service—Facts Worth Knowing.

Mr. P. J. McDonald, the very efficient clerk of the board of water works trustees, has just formulated the annual report of the department and the names of Charles McCulloch, T. B. Hedekin and C. F. Wm. Meyer are attached to it.

The statement shows that in the last eight months 3,460 feet of street mains have been laid, making 29.48 miles of pipe in the service. There are 229 public fire hydrants, ten private hydrants, 104 water motors and eleven elevator registers in use. All these go to supply and equip 1,460 service connections or consumers of water.

This statement of the finances of the department is comprehensive and will interest everybody:

Revenue for eight months ending January 1, 1887, $13,697.65.

Total cost of ordinary maintenance for same period, $5,758.55.

The trustees have received from all sources since the inauguration of the works up to date: Construction fund from the city, $280,238.69; total cash receipts, $167,332.75, making a grand total of $387,571.44.

The department has expended for construction, $262,930.54; for extensions, $22,470.94; for maintenance, $68,584.62; for all other purposes, $31,977.40; making the total expenditures $370,913.50, and adding the rebates, deposits, refunders, etc., of $578.04, the expenditures stand $371,492.54.

The cash balance on hand Jan. 1, 1887, was $16,079.90; received during month of Jan. 1887, 7,123.63, making a total cash on hand Feb. 1, 1887, of $23,202.53.

During the past eight months 101 service taps have been made at an average cost of $9.15 each. The work was done by employes of the water works instead of letting it to the contractors, as had been done prior to a resolution passed by the city council June 17, 1884. At that time the average cost of each tap made was $11.15, so it will be seen that $2 has been saved each time, which, in the aggregate amounts to a considerable sum, thus proving the expediency of the action of the council. Since the passage of the resolution heretofore referred to, the total number of taps made was 252, showing a net saving of $504, not to mention that the streets are left in better shape.

A BIG ONE.

The Grand Rapids Road to Build a Magnificent Summer Hotel.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke has seen the plans for the new hotel to be built at Mackinaw Island the coming summer by the Grand Rapids and Indiana and Michigan Central railroads and the Detroit and Cleveland navigation company. The building will be 680 feet long, forty-six feet wide and four stories high.

A verandah twenty feet wide will extend the full length of the front, and the main roof of the structure will extend over and form the roof of the verandah, the posts of which will be thirty-five feet high. Every alternate room in the second and third stories will be provided with a balcony overlooking the verandah below. The basement will be occupied by the billiard room, bath room, servants' rooms and fifty sleeping rooms. A hall eight feet wide will extend the whole length on all floors except where interrupted by the dining room and office.

The hotel will be heated by steam, equipped with elevators, electric lights and bells and have all modern conveniences. It is to be completed ready for opening July 1, will cost from $150,000 to $200,000, and will contain 1,500,000 feet of lumber. It is estimated that it will require 300 men 90 days to erect the hotel. Every apartment will be an outside room and 600 guests can be accommodated without crowding.

He will not, however, start for a few days, and his destination will probably be some farm house in the vicinity of Fortress Monroe.

CONSTRUCTION OF CHIMNEYS.

A London journal devoted to architecture states that the best chimneys are made by inclosing hard-baked pipes in a thin wall of bricks. Such chimneys will not only draw better than those made in the usual way, but there will be less danger from "defective flues." A four-inch wall of brick between us and destruction by fire is a frail barrier, especially if the work is carelessly done, or the mortar has crumbled from the joints. To build the chimneys with double, or eight-inch walls makes them very large, more expensive, and still not as good as when they contain the smooth, round flues. To leave an air chamber between them for ventilating is better than to open directly into the smoke flue, because it will not impair the draught for the fire, and there will be no danger of a sooty odor in the room when the circulation happens to be downward, as it will be occasionally. The outside chimney, if there is one, should have an extra air chimney between the very outer walls and the back of the fireplace to save heat, a precaution that removes, to a great extent, the common objection to such chimneys. A very large per cent. of fires comes from defective chimneys.

SAM JONES.

What He is Saying in Boston, Massachusetts.

I despise these little two-wheeled Christians.

I'd rather be a noble, generous sinner than a stingy Methodist.

I do not know any human being who has any special claim on God.

God never made two men alike, and, if he did, one of them was no account.

Jesus would put the angels on half rations before he would let a soldier in his army suffer.

This world has been keeping its eyes open for 6,000 years, and yet they have never seen a good man want.

I left my feelings at home, for I thought some fool in Boston might hurt them if I brought them along.

The power of the pulpit is in the pew. It is rough to put a preacher in an ice-box and then curse him because he will not sweat.

They have been after me about my grammar long enough to straighten me out but I always try to adapt my style to my congregation.

David was a great sinner but David was a magnificent repenter. He beat any man of his day sinning but he also beat them all repenting.

There may be a lot of people who can beat me in living right but there shall not be any man who can beat me of repenting of anything I do wrong.

There may appear in my remarks what seems to be levity but I would rather have anything than that sober, solid, hump-backed stiffness some try to palm off as religion.

God is going through this world hunting for every hungry man and when the hungry world hears God ringing his dinner bell the hungry men can take off their hats, walk in and eat and be hungry no more.

When a representative of a Methodist church died on a hall room floor—a young lady—the devil came in, picked her up bodily and ran off with her. I will say this to you, you dancer that goes to ball rooms: If you die, you die on the devil's territory.

A boy gets $10,000 in the Louisiana State lottery, but I would rather be a boy who had ploughed a whole week for $1. I would slap that dollar into my pocket, push my breeches under my head at night and the eagle on the dollar would turn into a nightingale and sing me to sleep.

Many preachers say that a man is not religious because he has no morals. Nonsense! One man gets religion and he jumps up and shouts the praises of God. Another man gives $1,000 to a mission next Sunday, but never shouts. Now, which which would you bet on, if you were a betting man?

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters

ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "Are you Brown's?" "Is there a genuine Brown's Iron Bitters?" "Is there any substitute for which a very valuable plea is made?" "Are Physicians recommending it?" "Is it the best restorative agent known to the profession, and industry of any leading medical man still existing?" "Is it a fact, as stated that there are more preparations of iron than of any other medicine used in medicine?" "Has there ever been a discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS properties?" "Is it satisfactory in every combination it has ever been?" "Is it reliable?"

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS do not injure the teeth, cause headache, produce constipation or other evil effects, nor do they contain whiskey, rum or any intoxicating liquor. They are an unfailing remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Want of Appetite, Lack of Energy, Nervousness, Weakness, Malaria, Chills and Fever, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is the great remedy. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is more strength. The muscular tissue is firmer, the digestive powers are improved, the nerves are active, showing the fact is mainly nerve-aided and assisted. When taken by women in any of the ailments peculiar to their sex, they are healthy and prompt to the cheeks; nervousness disappears, functional irregularities are overcome by its use, and a glowing mother, cheerful countenance is furnished for her child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and druggists recommend it.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

THURSDAY, FEB. 10, 1887.

THE two policemen at Norwalk, Conn., disputed as to who should be obief, and after a wrangle lasting two weeks they arrested and clubbed each other, and the town gave both the bounce and concluded that it was safer not to have any police force. There are times when arabition overleaps itself and gets a cold shake as a consequence.

THE reviewer of the London Times thinks that American fiction in its latest phase shows an excess in the power of painting realistic detail over the power of grasping what Gotho called "Motives;" that some of the new senior novelists are very skillful in motiviren, but that they work in the slightest and flimsiest material, and mostly on subjects drawn from town life. He thinks also that the younger school, represented partly by Miss Mnrfree, have a great command of new and fresh detail, especially in connection with rural and outlandish life, but are decidedly weak in that inner logical structure on which all great work in fiction depends.

EX-VICE PRESIDENT WHEELER is reported by a late visitor to his home at Malone as busy with his correspondence. He was cheerful, cordial, and vigorous in conversation. His health is seriously impaired, but not so as to prostrate him or confine him to his house. That he is kept in seclusion by his relatives or that he is constantly under the influence of opium is entirely false and groundless. Mr. Wheeler has survived his parents, brothers, sisters, and wife, and now lives alone, childless, and without a near relative in the world, and those bereavements have, of course, saddened him, but they have not broken him.

MR. GARLAND made his first appearance in public in company with the other members of the administration at the Logan funeral. Mr. Garland has steadfastly refused every invitation to any kind of gathering, official or social. He has never accompanied the President and his Cabinet when they have gone to neighboring cities to attend public gatherings. His reserve and fondness for shutting himself up, either in the Department of Justice or at home, appears to have grown upon him during the last year. He very rarely sees any one at his house in the evening. Very few public men call upon him.

"I HEAR," says a London latter writer, "that the advertisements in the Christmas number of Truth amounted to no less a sum than £1,100. It is the good fortune of Mr. Labouchere to turn everything he touches into gold. Truth paid from the second number, and it now brings him in the princely income of £12,000. He was for ten years a theatrical manager, and yet lost no money. The other day Henry Irving was recalling those days when he was one of Mr. Labouchere's stock company at the Queen's Theater, in Long Acre, and, with half a sigh, related the fact that he was only receiving £7 a week. 'Three pounds, my friend,' interposed the heartless Labby."

CONGRESSMAN THOMAS, of Illinois, whose illness, it is feared, may lead to his retirement from politics, is one of the best story-tellers in public life. Some time since Mr. Thomas formed one of a party of gentlemen on a sporting expedition to Maryland. While entertaining them in his cheery manner on route, it was noticed that a stranger present seemed to relish heartily the bon mots and anecdotes which fell in such profusion from the Illinois Congressman's lips. As they were about to leave the steamer, the stranger volunteered this bit of information regarding himself: "I am a catholic priest, but I enjoy occasionally laying aside my clerical robes to travel about and read the world as it is. I have been most delightfully entertained on this occasion, and, sir," turning toward the Congressman and presenting his card, "you are the very best story-teller I ever heard."

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and Impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

AT Washington during the present session, writes a correspondent, Representative Burns, of Missouri, William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, Wilkins, of Ohio, Tom Bayne, of Pittsburgh, and a few others have formed a coterie, and are often seen playing three-ball billiards or pool at one of the prominent rooms. Mr. Burns is probably the most expert of the quartet. He learned at home, and knows how to handle the balls. Like Tom Ochiltree, he nurses them when at billiards, and tosses them around deftly when the game is pool. He talks much more than does Mr. Phelps while playing, for the well-known New Jerseyman seems a little bored when he is making an exhibition of himself in a pool room. Col. Bayne is known as a good all-around-the-table billiardist, and he enjoys the surroundings during a contest, and likes the excitement when the game is evenly matched, whereas Mr. Phelps seams to wander off in his mind to legislation or the prospects for the Plumed Knight in 1888. Berish Wilkins is the latest addition to the billiard players, but he is no novice in the art. He chalks his cue and rattles his contestants with the guys as familiarly as any professional. He is very talkative, and the boys say he seems to think he can play as well with his tongue as with his cue. J. Hart Brewer, of New Jersey, the well-known potter, who took such a prominent part in the tariff discussion in the Forty-seventh Congress, was an habitue of the billiard parlors here, and used to round up Wilkins frequently. Robertson, of Kentucky, often sticks his head into the billiard rooms, but he never cared as much for dallying with the cue and balls as Senator Beck, who, but for the work he has to do and the high dignity about it, would be about the billiard rooms much of his time. Few of the Southern Senators or Representatives are ever seen in billiard rooms. They come here from the East and Central States mostly. And, strange as it may seem, the public men who play billiards most drink the least. There are those who would turn up their noses at the suggestion of playing billiards, but would drink to excess and never think it wrong. There is the greatest abandon among the sixty or seventy-five legislators who frequently play billiards. Sometimes, on a hot night, they take off their coats and work like wood sawyers. Senator Vest, it is said, can make more work around a billiard table than a section hand on a railroad car at his work. Senator Ransom moves around and reels while he plays. Senator Voorhees never plays, because, they say, he has not the patience, if he had the time. Senator Palmer likes billiards, but he likes them at the quiet home, away from the noise and confusion of the crowd.

Pond's Extract.

As a household remedy there are few family medicines that are as popular as Pond's Extract. It can be found in the houses of almost every family, north, south, east or west, in this country and is largely used abroad. First made over forty years ago in a small way, it has continued to increase till now its sales run into millions of bottles a year. Its uses are almost universal and one of its valuable properties is that it is perfectly harmless. In cases of wounds, its healing powers are wonderful, its astringent properties stopping the flow of blood; for bad wounds its just the thing to apply until the doctor arrives. For inflammations, the pain and swelling go down immediately on its application. To name what it would do would fill a book. Reader, we ask you, if you have not already done so, to try it." Be sure to get the genuine.—St. Louis (Mo.) Republican.

The parents of a Hoosier young lady opposed her marriage with Albert Wright, a Greencastle photographer, and Wright killed himself with a revolver.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

To the Cuticura Remidies I Owe My Health, My Happiness, and My Life.

A day never passes that I do not think and speak kindly of the Cuticura Remedies. Seven years ago, all of a dozen lumps formed on my back, ranging in size from a cherry stone to an orange. The cruel pain was more than I could look at, and painful to bear; people turned aside when they saw me, in disgust, and I was ashamed to be in human society. Physicians and their treatment, and all medicines failed to do any good. In a moment of despair I tried the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura, the great skin cure, and Cuticura Soap, an exquisite skin beautifier, externally, and Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, internally; the small lumps—for I will (with) gradually disappeared, and the large ones broke, about two weeks, discharging large quantities of matter, leaving two slight scars in my neck to-day to tell the story of my suffering. My weight then was one hundred and fifteen sticks; to-day my weight was one hundred and sixty-one solid, healthy pounds, and my height is only five feet five inches. In my travels I praised the Cuticura Remedies, North, South, East and West. To Cuticura Remedies I owe my health, my happiness, and my life. A prominent New York druggist said me the other day, "Do you still use the Cuticura Remedies; you look to be in perfect health." My reply was, "I do, and shall always. I have never known what sickness is since I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies." Sometimes I am laughed at by praising them to people not acquainted with their merits, but sooner or later they will come to their senses and believe the same as those that use them, as scores have known me I have told. May the time come when there shall be a large Cuticura supply house in every one in the world, for the benefit of humanity, where the Cuticura Remedies shall be sold only, as there will be rarely a need of ever entering a drug store. Sneezing Catarrh

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending in the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining, causing choking sensations, coughs, ringing noises in the head and splitting headaches—how many families these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influenza, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure Nasal Cure will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in case of simple catarrh gives but a few hints of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous accumulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated, and hacking cough gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvellous curative power of Sanford's Radical Cure manifests itself in instantaneous and genuine relief. Cures begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent, economical, safe.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and an improved inhaler; price, $1.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Reports of the Police Commissioners, City Attorney, City Clerk and City Treasurer.

REPORT OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council.

We, your board of police commissioners, respectfully report that since but meeting we have examined charges against three patrolmen. In the first case, that of Patrolman Quinn, we found the charge true, but we considered that he has served the city many years and faithfully, and by having been suspended for five days before his hearing, we continued him in service after reprimanding him and warning him against a repetition of such charge. In the case of Officer Finkbuiner, we found that he simply entered a saloon, drank nothing at all, and he claimed that he entered the place in search of a person, which, if true, was allowable under the rules. In the case of Officer O'Connell we ordered those said to have been witnesses to attend the examination, a gentleman on the street car service was the only one to attend and he was unwilling to swear that Officer O'Connell was intoxicated. Under the evidence we could not find him guilty.

CHAS. F. MUELLER,
W. DOEHRMAN,
PETER J. SCHMID,
JOHN C. KENGELE,
HERMAN MICHAEL,
Police Commissioners.

On motion of Mr. Doehrman the above report was concurred in.

REPORT OF CITY ATTORNEY.

To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen—

I respectfully report as follows:

That I find the sum of $53 properly due W. D. Meier as clerk's costs in divers cases decreed.

HENRY COLERICK, City Attorney.

On motion of Mr. Doehrman the report was concurred in, and clerk instructed to issue an ordinance with the report.

REPORT OF STREET COMMISSIONER AND CITY CIVIL ENGINEER.

To His Honor the Mayor and Common Council.

We, the street commissioners and city civil engineer, report that we have examined the outlet of the Hanna street sewer and the outlet of the Walton Avenue sewer and we find that the outlets of said sewers are in a bad and dangerous condition, especially the Hanna street sewer, as there is about ten feet of said sewer washed out, including the bulkhead. The cause of the damage is: When the ice in the river commenced moving it covered the chute of the Hanna street sewer away. We therefore recommend that the matter be referred to the proper committee with power to act.

J. S. GOODSON,
City Civil Engineer.

DENNIS O'BRIEN,
Street Commissioner.

On motion of Mr. Butler under the above report was referred to the street commissioner, city civil engineer and sewer committee with power to make all the temporary repairs necessary.

A CHOICE OF TERMS.

A little girl who had been invited to a wedding was besieging her mother to let her go.

"I want to see some one married awfully," she announced as a climax.

"You should not use such emphatic language," remonstrated her mother.

"Well, then, mamma, I want to see some one awfully married," amended Miss Malaprop.

It is a Curious Fact

That the body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine tan at any other season. Hence the importance of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla now, when it will do you the most good. It is really wonderful for purifying and enriching the blood, creating an appetite and giving a healthy to the whole system. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar to itself.

The Montreal carnival opened Monday.

Coughs and Hoarseness.—The irritation which induces coughing immediately relieved by use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold only in boxes.

Operatic music has been prohibited in the Philadelphia Catholic churches.

Why do you suffer with backache, pain in the chest, rheumatism, or lameness anywhere when a Hop Plaster will surely give you relief. Druggists sell them, 25 cents.

Heath & Co., New York stock brokers, have failed. They say they will be able to pay 100 cents on the dollar.

How to Gain Flesh and Strength

Use after each meal Scott's Emulsion: It is as palatable as milk and easily digested. Delicate people improve rapidly with its use. For consumption, throat affections and bronchitis it is unequalled. Dr. Thomas Prim, Ala., says: I used Scott's Emulsion on a child eight months old; he gained four pounds in a month."

William Davisson, aged 16, shot and seriously wounded Lizzie Cragham, aged 15, at St. Louis, because of jealousy.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he cannot go into society and he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked and frequently entirely destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which in its turn has been the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results which have attended its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only real cure.

The English government has practically decided to adopt the Lee-Remington American rifle for the use of the army.

CURE.

FRUIT HOUSE PRICES FOR '87

Quite a change has taken place in a great many goods the last sixty days, the tendency being in most cases upwards. This is the case, especially in Coffee and Dried Fruits, Sugars, Teas, Syrups, Spices and Tobacco, have not advanced, but from indications they will.

It will pay our customers to purchase liberally.

We have just received forty hogsheads of choice New Orleans Sugar.

A nice yellow Sugar which we are selling at 4½c. This is the lowest price such sugars have ever been sold at.

Sugars—White, Brown and Yellow New Orleans.

No advance on them. Choice yellow, 5c; best standard A coffee white, 6c; crushed, powdered and granulated, 6½c; choice yellow New Orleans, 4½c.

NO ADVANCE ON TEAS,

Yet they will not likely remain at such low prices in the face of the large advance on Coffee. We continue to maintain our prestige in the Tea trade. Our trade has grown immensely in that line. People have no longer to send off to purchase their Teas. In order to save money we keep up the plan of buying in large lots of the importers and re-selling direct to our customers at a small profit, thereby saving to our customers the intermediate profits of jobber and wholesale dealer—which is not less than 10 to 20c.

Good, 15c per pound; choice, 30c; best, 50c. Imperial tea—Green, good, 30c; best, 50c. Gunpowder tea, 30c; best, 50c. Oolong or Black tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c; Japan tea, 20c, 30c; best, 50c. Above prices on teas are the lowest on record and the best teas are of the highest quality—no better anywhere—the other grades are good, sweet, drawing teas and will please the most fastidious tea drinkers. Just give them a trial and satisfy yourself.

Coffee—Rio, Java and Roasted.

Best Rio coffee, 15c, per pound; best roasted Rio, 18c per pound; German coffee, 20c per pound; Housekeepers' Choice, 23c per pound; roasted Java, 25c per pound.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Prunes, Raisins, Currents, &c., &c.

Turkish prunes, 7c; figs, per pound, 10c; peeled peaches, 20c; dried cherries, 15; unpeeled peaches, 8c; dried raspberries, 30c; dried apples, 6c; dried blackberries, 15c.

Leghorn Citron, 22c; orange and lemon peel, 15c; Valencia raisins, 8c; best layer raisins, 12½c; Zantes currants, 8c; shelled almonds, 30c; seedless raisins, 10c.

Candies—Stick, Mixed and Bon Bons.

Pure stick candy, 10c; pure mixed candy, 10c; fancy toy candy, 20c, toy candies, 20c; Brazil nuts, 10c quart; almond nuts, 15c quart; mixed nuts, 15c quart; walnuts and filberts, 12½c quart.

Mr. Brady, Mr. Hill's manager, in conversation with a Mail-Express reporter this afternoon, said he hoped nobody lost much time in the search, as the incident is a part of the play, and on every night the same young man is to get similarly excited and disturb the performance and get arrested by the same policeman. It is a feature new to plays and peculiar to this one, and is expected to take well with the public."

The first pavement was laid a month ago and it has been torn up and relaid several times since. The trouble seems to be that under heavy hauling the pavement flakes and crumbles. The pavement has not yet been accepted by the city. The asphalt pavement was laid because the judges in the new court house complained of the noise caused by vehicles on the stone pavement."

ALMOST A FATAL MISTAKE.

In an Arkansaw town, a mob, led by a desperate man, marched to a jail, dragged a murderer from a cell and hurried with him to the outskirts of town. Each man wore an expression of determination—features hardened by awful resolve. The prisoner attempted to speak, to beg for his life, but hurly hands closed around his throat and the prayer he would have uttered went out in an inarticulate gurgle.

When the infuriated men reached a large oak, they halted. One of them threw a rope over a limb.

"Gentlemen," said the prisoner, "please give me a chance to say a word."

"Be quick about it," some one shouted.

"Gentlemen, I admit that the evidence is against me, but as truly as we stand here, I killed that man in self-defense."

"Killed what man?" was asked.

"Bill Bottleford."

"Say, you ain't the man that killed Bottleford, are you?"

"Yes, unfortunately, I am the man."

"Men," shouted the leader, "we have come in one of making a terrible mistake." Then turning to the prisoner the leader added: "We thought, sir, that you were the man that stole Nat Boyd's fish trap. Hop down offen the box. You are free."—Arkansaw Traveler.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

The Wedding of Mr. Lehman to Miss Heilbronner Quite a Society Event.

Last evening Mr. I. Lehman, a prosperous merchant at Harper, Kansas, was wedded to Miss Hattie, the accomplished daughter of Mr. S. Heilbronner. Dr. Israel Aaron solemnized the ceremony at the synagogue, and afterward a fashionable reception occurred at the Standard club parlors, where also a superb wedding feast was spread. The synagogue was tastily festooned with flowers and Mr. and Mrs. Lehman were the recipients of costly gifts. They are now making a tour of the east, finally to settle at Harper, Kansas. It is almost out of our province to go into details as to the elegance of the affair or to attempt a description of the costumes of the ladies, but an idea of the sumptuous closing feast served by Mr. J. J. Neiderberger, the caterer, can be gleaned from the following bill of fare:

GLIDING ON GLASS IN GLORY.

"Oh, George!" said Sylvia to her future lord and master as he lapped the powder off her cheek. "I do love you, but I cannot go to the rink with you any more."

"And why not, pray?" said George.

"The minister says it is wrong," replied Sylvia, sobbing.

"Since when have you become so attentive to the minister's counsel? It was only yesterday you called him a meddling old fogy."

"But I want to go to heaven, George."

"So do we all, I hope."

"But, George, dear, I cannot go to heaven if I go to the rink."

"But why this sudden longing for heaven?"

"Oh, George," said Sylvia, "you ought to have heard Mr. Tane read the lesson yesterday. There is to be a sea of glass there."

"Well, what of that?"

"And we are never to grow tired nor sleepy."

"Well?"

"And it will last forever."

"Yes?"

"Oh, George, think of the daisy skating there will be!"—St. Paul Herald.

MORALITIES.

When a man has no desire but to speak the plain truth he may say a great deal in a very narrow space.

One dies twice—to cease to live is nothing, but to cease to love and be loved is an insupportable death.

Every man is the maker of his own fortune, and must be, in some measure, the trumpet of his own fame.

The more our gifts and graces are exercised, the more they are strengthened and increased. All sets strengthen habits.

When home is ruled according to God's word, angels might be asked to stay at night with us, and they would not find themselves out of their element.

Fame is an undertaker that pays but little attention to the living, but bedizens the dead, furnishes out the funerals, and follows them to the grave.

How easy it is for one benevolent being to diffuse pleasure around him; and how truly is a kind heart a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity to freshen into smiles.—White Hall Times.

HE SPANKED THE BOY.

All the adult passengers in the waiting room had their attention attracted by his antics. He wanted candy, and he wanted to see the river, and he wanted more than any city the size of Detroit could possibly furnish free gratis. His mother hushed him up the best she could, and several times he slapped her face and kicked her shins and got off without even a pinch. By and by an old man who sat near her, and whose feet the boy had walked on several times, began to get nervous, and, turning in his right-hand neighbor, said:

"Loud o' massy! but I've either got to git outer here or spank that boy!"

"He just aches for it!" growled the other.

"He does. He puts me in mind of my William. I've seen William when nothing on arth but a spanking would put good nature into him."

"I say I will go!" shouted the boy at this moment.

"Please, Johnny, be good," entreated the mother.

"I won't!"

"Oh, do. See how they are all looking at us."

"I don't care if they are!"

With that he walked up to the old man, and made a kick, and then the curtain went up on the play. With one twist and two motions he was seized, whirled over a pair of knees, and, before he could squawk once, the spanking machine began its work. If ever a boy of seven was neatly wound up, and the ugly taken out of him in sixty seconds, the work was no more complete than in this case.

"There," said the spanker, as he upended the child and planted him on a seat, "you'll feel better—a heap better. Hated to do it, you know, but saw that you was suffering for it. Beg your mother's pardon for interfering in family matters, but you set right thar till the train is ready."

The boy "set," and such a calm and solid peace stole over the crowd that the yells of the backmen outdoors gave everybody a pain.—Detroit Free Press.
